FROM OUR FARM & BUTCHERS

We're farmers as well as traditional butchers. From our own farm and farmers we trust, we select and prepare meat with care for your Christmas table.

Our own Hereford beef

Our grass-fed Hereford herd is reared here at Hartley. We also source beef from trusted local farmers. Our butchers carefully dry-age and prepare each cut for flavour.

Choose a classic rib of beef, fillet for a homemade Wellington or a traditional topside roasting joint.

Turkey & poultry

Free-range bronze turkeys from the Walters family in Berkshire, slow-grown, dry-plucked and traditionally hung. Alongside them, free-range chicken and duck from Creedy Carver in Devon.

Bacon & gammon

Bacon and gammon from the Cornish Farmhouse Bacon Co. Their traditional Wiltshire-cured bacon is, in our opinion, hard to beat.

All the trimmings

Sausages, stuffing and pigs in blankets, handmade by our butchers using outdoor-reared Somerset pork from Prestige Pork.

FROM OUR KITCHEN & FARM SHOP

Our homemade mince pies

Made and baked here at Hartley, our mince pies are a Christmas favourite. Serve warm with a generous spoonful of brandy clotted cream from our family at Ivy House Farm.

Cheese & Christmas ham

Artisan cheeses for a generous cheeseboard, and Wiltshire-cured ham cooked and glazed by us, with mustard and honey for easy festive lunches.

Homegrown & local produce

Fruit and veg boxes bringing together homegrown produce and favourites from local growers, ready for your Christmas cooking.

All your Christmas favourites

Our most popular festive foods are available to pre-order. The farm shop will be stocked right up to Christmas with all the essentials and finishing touches.

CHRISTMAS AT HARTLEY

I've always loved hearing my parents and grandparents tell stories about our family's farming history. Stories of life a hundred years ago, when food was produced by folk in the community, for the community. It makes me proud that our farm has come back to that way of doing things.

Those stories feel particularly close at Christmas. I remember helping Dad with the rounds first thing on Christmas morning, then gathering in the kitchen for breakfast, with a long list of cooking jobs ahead. Grandparents would pop in, the stories would come out, and we'd hear another little piece of the Bowles family's history.

Today, it's all hands on deck once again at Hartley, with our butchers, bakers and the whole team busy preparing food for our wonderful community of customers. There's no better time to see that connection between family, food and farming come alive.

Then, once the gates close, we all get to pause for a couple of days and enjoy Christmas together. It's still my favourite time of year. I hope you enjoy your own traditions and time together this Christmas.

All the best,
Tom and all the team at Hartley
